

Bangalore Classic Tours and Travels Pvt. Ltd.

GOLDEN TRIANGLE PACKAGE

DAY 01: DELHI - YAMUNA RIVER

Arrive at Delhi. You will be met on arrival at Delhi Airport / Railway Station and escorted to the hotel. Delhi, the capital city of India lying along the River Yamuna, Seven cities have existed here since the 10th century, ruled over by a succession of Rajputs, Turks, Afghans, Mughals and the British. Delhi is two cities in one; the Old Delhi of the Mughals, created by Shah Jahan after moving his Capital from Agra in 1638 AD is still a medieval district of narrow lanes, forts, mosques and bazaars. The second, New Delhi, built by the British in 1911-1931 and characterized by Sir Edwin Lutyens' architecture, is a spacious and well-designed metropolis of broad avenues, grand imperial buildings and landscaped gardens. New Delhi is a green city with its tree lined avenues, parks and natural forest and one of the City's hidden delights is the picturesque Lodi Gardens set around Mughal tombs and it is home to a number of museums including the national Museum, the Museum of Modern art, the Museum of Natural History and the creative Arts and Crafts Museum where artisans can be seen at work. Overnight at hotel.

DAY 02: DELHI - QUTUB MINAR

Enjoy your breakfast this morning at the hotel, and proceed through South Delhi to visit Qutub Minar, which is a World Heritage site and one of the most historically monument in Delhi. This 234' high tower which was built in 1193, at the time of the foundation of the Islamic rule in India. Drive past the Bhai Temple, a serene marble structure of near perfect proportions. Later, visit one of the most inspirational monuments of Delhi's past the Humayun's Tomb.

Humayun's Tomb: This Tomb was built in 1565 by a Persian architect. Surrounded by well-maintained gardens it is a wonderfully serene site. Drive onto Rajpath, a two mile long avenue originally the focal point of British India and now used for parades; lined with ornamental canals the views in both directions are imposing. Drive past India Gate, built to commemorate the Indian and British soldiers who died in World War I, Parliament House and Rashtrapati Bhawan. Standing at the crest of Raisina Hill, Lutyen's 20th Century architectural masterpiece was built for the viceroy during British rule and is now the President's residence. Visit the Birla Mandir as it is popularly known which enshrines Lord Vishnu, situated at the heart of the city. Afterwards in Old Delhi previously known as Shahjahanabad, take a cycle rickshaw through the chaotic, noisy and bustling markets of Chandni Chowk, where trading continues in the maze of shops as it has done over the Centuries. Afternoon is free to walk around in the colorful and bustling bazaars for personal exploration or shopping. Overnight at hotel.

41 AJ CHAMBERS, RV ROAD, BASAVANAGUDI, BANGALORE 560004
PH: +91 80 26568182 / 26563939 / 26564949, Email: info@classictours.in

Bangalore Classic Tours and Travels Pvt. Ltd.

DAY 03: DELHI –AGRA (220 KMS)

Enjoy your breakfast this morning at the hotel, check out and proceed and drive to Agra. Agra was the capital of the Mughals during the 16th and 17th centuries. The emperors Akbar, Jahangir and Shah Jahan governed their vast empires from here and as prolific builders; artisans from Persia, Central Asia and other parts of India were attracted by their patronage. The resulting luxurious palaces, tombs, forts and gardens dot the picturesque riverine region along the Yamuna River; three of which, the Taj Mahal, Agra Fort and Itmad ud Daula (baby Taj). Check in at hotel and later proceed for your sightseeing tour which starts from Agra fort, situated

Idmat-ul-daula: on the west bank of the Yamuna River, this imposing red sandstone Fort was started in 1565 by Akbar. The fort surrounded by a moat forms a crescent along the riverfront and encompasses a huge complex of courtly buildings reflecting the varied styles of the Emperors. Wander through the lavishly decorated halls, courtyards and galleries discovering hidden pavilions and alcoves while getting a glimpse of the Taj Mahal at a distance. Later visit the Taj Mahal, the world's greatest monument to love and devotion. Built by the emperor Shah Jahan for his favorite wife Mumtaz, its perfect proportions and exquisite craftsmanship took 20,000 workers almost 22 years to complete in 1653. (Closed on Fridays). Overnight at hotel

DAY 04: AGRA –JAIPUR (250 KMS)

Enjoy your breakfast this morning at the hotel, check out and proceed and drive to Jaipur en-route visit to Fatehpur Sikri. Fatehpur Sikri: This deserted red sandstone city built by Emperor Akbar in 1571 AD in honor of the famous Sufi saint, Salim Chishti. The Mughal capital for only 14 years until abandoned due to lack of water, the buildings, blending Hindu and Islamic styles of architecture.

INCLUSIONS:

- ✓ Return Airfares.
- ✓ Transfers (Airport - Hotel - Airport).
- ✓ Accommodation.
- ✓ Sight Seeing.
- ✓ Vehicle as mentioned in the itinerary.

41 AJ CHAMBERS, RV ROAD, BASAVANAGUDI, BANGALORE 560004
PH: +91 80 26568182 / 26563939 / 26564949, Email: info@classictours.in